Weekend Getaways

As we welcome the New Year and bid farewell to the holiday season, many of us could use a break from the Big Apple. If you're looking to start the year off with some R&R, check out our list of nearby destinations to kick back and take a breather.

Getaway Modern Cabins

Nothing screams relaxation quite like roasting marshmallows outside your cozy forest cabin. Getaway Modern Cabins in the Catskills is about two hours away from the city and starts at $169 a night for up to four people. Each cabin includes a shower, a fire pit, and a kitchen.

Hershey Park

If you're looking for something the whole family can enjoy on the extended Martin Luther King holiday weekend, Hershey Park is a great choice! Tickets start at $76 for a one-day pass, or $56 for a two-day pass, and include access to the amusement park, the zoo, Hershey's Chocolatetown, and more family

Tarrytown House Estate

Tarrytown House Estate is a short, 45-minute drive from New York City. This cozy, 1800s-inspired estate sits on 26 acres of land along the Hudson River. Enjoy on-site fine dining, swimming, and sports facilities as you stay in this sanctuary, starting at $142 a night.

Mount Airy Resort & Casino

Mount Airy Resort and Casino is a newly-renovated destination located in the heart of the Poconos. The resort features a new casino, an indoor pool, and restaurants. The resort is also only a short drive to Pocono hot spots including Camelback Ski Resort and Great Wolf Lodge!
