Sweet Tooth Edition

From fruit flavored candy to gooey chocolate goodness, most of us have a weakness for sweetness in our lives. New York City is a melting pot of cultures, cuisines, and yes, even desserts. This week, we offer you a list of mouth-watering dessert hot spots and recipes that will satisfy your sweet tooth and have you begging for more!

Lafayette Bakery | NoHo

Lafayette Bakery went viral for their cream-filled round croissants, which critics have called “better than any croissant in France.” The result? Drove of people waiting in line for hours, just to try the famous dessert. If you’re up for it, make sure you get there early!

Stuffed Ice Cream | NoHo

Craving donuts? How about ice cream? Well, why not both! Stuffed Ice Cream puts a fun twist on the classic ice cream sandwich by filling their Thai-style donuts with their homemade ice cream. There are also dozens of cereal and candy inspired toppings to make it your way.

Eight Turn Crepe | Brooklyn

Eight Turn Crêpe is a Japanese crêperie famous for their “Crêpe Brulée.” This decadent crêpe is made using their homemade custard cream, fresh fruit, and granulated sugar, that’s then torched like a crème brulée. Have a look for yourself!

Vanilla Bean Panna Cotta Recipe

Panna Cotta is an easy-to-make Italian dessert the whole family will love. This five-star recipe has only three steps with 15 minutes of active prep time. If done properly, you’ll deliver a restaurant-quality dessert that’s good enough to brag about!
