

NYC Lifestyle

May 27, 2023 to June 10, 2023

Celebrating June!

June is full of fun and lesser-known national holidays like donut day, garden week, and candy month. We encourage you to enjoy the summer weather, indulge a little, and make new memories every day this month!

National Candy Month

That's right, June is National Candy Month! Instead of heading to your local grocery store, check out this batch of candy recipes! This sugar-filled list includes homemade fudge, toffee, traditional hard candy, and more!

National Donut Day

Once you're finished indulging in candy, make room for National Donut Day! Gather some friends for a five borough tour of New York City's best donut shops, and make sure you stop at Krispy Kreme to grab a free donut for the holiday!

Economy Candy | Lower East Side

If you're not patient enough to make your own candy, visit Economy Candy, Manhattan's oldest candy shop, for several rooms filled from floor-to-ceiling with hundreds of confections!

National Garden Week

National Garden Week returns June 4-10 and is a perfect excuse to step up your green game! Whether you're new to apartment gardening or a pro, these are some of the best plant shops in NYC for enthusiasts. Don't be afraid to ask for guidance!

NYC Lifestyle

May 27, 2023 to June 10, 2023

Celebrating June!

Global Running Day

June 7 is Global Running Day, which celebrates runners across the world. New York Road Runners has organized a Virtual Global Running Day 5k, where participants can join thousands of runners from around the world, no matter their location.

National Adopt-A-Cat Month

June is national adopt-a-cat month, so if you're looking to give a furry friend their forever home, pay a visit to your local shelter. NYC Second Chance Rescue is also hosting The Gotham Gala, a charity event that supports the non-profit's commitment to rescue, rehabilitate, and rehome animals.

National Rosé Day at Rooftop Reds

Rooftop Reds, a trendy Brooklyn winery, invites you to celebrate National Rosé Day at their rooftop rosé tasting event. For $65, guests can enjoy four tasting and pairing stations, live music, and a bottle of the winery's own rosé to take home!

National Children's Day

June 11 is National Children's Day, which celebrates the lives of children and encourages the support of causes that aim to improve children's health and welfare. Click here for local charities in NYC.

*FirstService Residential does not receive commission or any other benefit from the service providers or establishments included in NYC Lifestyle.