National Dog Month

In honor of national dog month, we've collected some tail-wagging events for you and your canine pals to appreciate each other's companionship. From art classes to yoga, this edition of NYC Lifestyle has it all. Grab your leash and enjoy!

Doggy Paddle Social

Dive into a day on the water with your furry best friend at the Pier 84 Boathouse, where you can kayak or paddle board with your dog. Tickets are only $12 and this unique protected cove is filled with lounge space, changing rooms, and lockers. Lifejackets are provided for you and Fido!

Crescent Beach Park

Crescent Beach Park is a quiet, dog-friendly beach in Staten Island. This moon-shaped greenspace is filled with marshes, woods, wetlands, and has an off-leash dog area. With a beautiful view of the water, this is an amazing spot for a refreshing beach stroll with your four-legged buddy.

Doggy and Me Yoga

Calling all yoga-loving dog owners! DOGA is a hands-on experience that combines the bliss of dogs and the Zen of yoga. This 45-minute class is a bonding and relaxing experience for you and your pup. The venue is located in Williamsburg and each ticket comes with a free drink!

Black Lab Café

Enjoy a cup of coffee (or a glass of wine) with your pup at the Upper West Side's most popular dog-themed cafe. The Black Lab Café was created by pup owners, for pup owners, with menus and treats for both. It's a perfect spot to grab your laptop and catch up on some work with your pup.

Sip and Paint Pet Class | East Village

Unleash your inner artist at a Pups and Pints Paint Portrait class with FurLyfe. This is one of the East Village's best immersive art classes, and you can bring your loyal friend along! An artist will pre-sketch your pup on the canvas for you to trace and paint a watercolor portrait.

Woofbowl | Bushwick

Woofbowl, a food truck for dogs, is bringing new life to gourmet dog treats. Grab your own free Woofbowl at the Maria Hernandez Dog Run in Bushwick on August 27th from 11 a.m. – 1 p.m. If you can't make it that day, click here to see where the truck will be throughout August.

Dog Days of Summer | Astoria

This ultimate patio meet-up is at Oliver's in Astoria, and it's perfect for dogs and owners! Dogs can revel in treats and toys, while their owners enjoy drink specials and classic backyard games including cornhole and giant Jenga. This sun-soaked summer bash takes place every Sunday until Labor Day from 4 p.m. - 7 p.m.

Animal Care Centers of NYC

Looking to adopt? Plenty of adorable dogs and other pets at the Animal Care Centers of NYC need to find their forever home. With locations in Manhattan, Brooklyn, and Staten Island, this organization has plenty of pets in need of homes. Expand your fur family and meet your new best friend today!
