

NYC Lifestyle

Oct. 28, 2023 to Nov. 11, 2023

Flavors of Fall

Fall brings many things – orange leaves, festive gatherings, and of course, delicious seasonal flavors. From pumpkin pie to apple cider, we've put together a list of the most delicious destinations and events happening around town this season!

Flying Fox Tavern

Keep the spooky vibe alive at the Flying Fox Tavern, a year-round, cinematic horror-themed restaurant in Ridgewood, Queens. The classic horror film poster décor is complemented by eerie cocktails and plenty of vegan options.

Pumpkin Picking and Pie

After you're finished picking locally grown pumpkins, try baking your very own pumpkin pie. With just one hour and eight ingredients, this recipe is an easy task for home bakers and might even earn you some bragging rights for seasons to come!

Frenchette

Located in TriBeCa, Frenchette is one of the city's most popular modern French restaurants. In the fall, this upscale eatery sells pre-boxed Thanksgiving dinners, which are extremely popular and must be ordered well in advance.

Circa Brewing Co.

If endless options of beer and pizza sounds like your idea of fun, make sure you check out Circa Brewing Co. Located in Downtown Brooklyn, Circa features a cozy taproom with dozens of in-house brews and a classic brick oven!

NYC Lifestyle

Oct. 28, 2023 to Nov. 11, 2023

Flavors of Fall

Hudson Valley Cideries

The Hudson Valley is known for its abundance of orchards and cideries, but if you're looking to take your apple cider with a little kick this season, check out this list of Hudson Valley hard cideries! From way up in Albany to right outside Westchester County, this list has you covered.

"The Best of Brooklyn" Food Tour

One of the best things about Brooklyn is the many micro-neighborhoods and cultural outposts that comprise the borough. Taste your way through Brooklyn at this 4.5-hour food tour of North and South Williamsburg, Greenpoint, and DUMBO. Tickets are $175 per person including food and beverages.

Homemade Apple Cider

So, you've successfully made your way to an orchard, and you now have a bounty of apples. Curious what you do with them? Try making your own apple cider! This simple recipe from Delish has a short prep time of just 10-minutes and yields just about two quarts of cider.

Dominique Ansel Bakery

Check out the Dominique Ansel Bakery in SoHo, where no dessert is a wrong choice. For the fall season, they've brought back their famous hot chocolate, which includes a marshmallow flower that opens as it melts for a picture-perfect fall drink!