Holiday Edition

New York City is known for its over-the-top holiday decorations, festive performances, and vintage holiday markets. Get into the holiday spirit with some of our favorite events happening this month!

Rolf's German Restaurant

Rolf's, labeled as "NYC's most festive restaurant", is a Gramercy Park favorite serving traditional German cuisine in an intimate setting. Rolf's is known for their spectacular lights and vintage ornaments which bring crowds from all over the city during the holiday season.

Christkindlmarkt | Bethlehem, PA

Less than two hours away from the city lies "Christmas City" in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Their annual Christkindlmarkt holiday market is now open and features local food vendors, pop-up shops, ice skating, and caroling, all set to the backdrop of a quaint American town.

The Clonard Irish Pub

The Clonard is a small pub in the heart of Williamsburg, Brooklyn, offering delicious cocktails and holiday vibes all season long! With festive music and an abundance of decorations in the bar and their outdoor patio, this place is a must for the holidays!

Winter Wonderland Holiday Workshop

The Science Museum of Long Island invites you to their Winter Wonderland Holiday Workshop, an interactive, educational experience for kids of all ages. Kids can meet and learn about winter-loving animals, the science of snowflakes, and perform experiments with liquid nitrogen.

Glide at Brooklyn Bridge Park

You can now enjoy stunning city views as you ice skate under the Brooklyn Bridge. With cafés and plenty of food options nearby, Brooklyn Bridge Park's ice rink is the perfect place to have fun with the family while soaking in all the charm Downtown Brooklyn has to offer. Times run from 11:00 am to 10:00pm with tickets ranging from $15 for children to $45 for adults.

Grand Holiday Bazaar Market

If you're looking for a more local holiday market, visit the weekly Grand Holiday Bazaar Market on the Upper West Side. The indoor/outdoor market features over 350 merchants including food vendors, handmade designs, modern art, and antiques, so you won't run out of things to explore. The market is open every Sunday from 10:00am to 5:00pm until December 17.

Hoboken Ugly Sweater Bar Crawl

Grab your least attractive winter wear for Hoboken's Ugly Sweater Bar Crawl! The crawl will take place on December 9 from 3:00pm to 10:00pm, with tickets priced at $15. The itinerary includes eight bars and clubs including Fat Taco Tequila Bar, Ainsworth Bar N' Nightclub, and Wild Moose Saloon, all offering holiday-themed drinks and exclusive discounts for participants.

Cirque du Soleil | 'Twas the Night Before

'Twas The Night Before is Cirque Du Soleil's first holiday-themed production set to launch at Madison Square Garden. The show is loosely based on Clement Clarke Moore's 1823 poem "A Visit from St. Nicholas" and will run through December 28.
