GridRewards: Energy Savings Made Easy

FirstService Energy has partnered with GridRewards – a cutting-edge climate tech app that helps residents earn cash payments and reduce electricity bills all year round. How does it work?

The GridRewards app links to your Con Edison account, tells you when to reduce your energy usage, and pays you for using less energy – typically during high-demand hours a few days a year.

The average household can earn more than $100/year, and 98% of GridRewards participants got paid in 2022.

To maximize savings, download the app and sign up before March 30! Use the code “ENERGY” to earn a $10 gift card as a sign-up bonus once you connect your Con Edison account.

*For the work to set up this program and provide ongoing support to Logical Buildings, FirstService Energy receives an administrative fee from Logical Buildings.
